What sets the area apart is the warmth and friendliness of the residents. I felt welcomed and embraced by the communities I worked in from the first day which is truly memorable. The encouragement and support to take charge of your journey empowers and truly allows fellows to tailor their program just as the envisioned it. Reflecting on my time here, I can confidently say that Dumfries and Galloway offer's a one-of-a-kind fellowship experience that no fellow will ever forget".
